BOLETIM OFICIAL

GOVERNMENT OF GOA, DAMAN AND DIU

Secretariat

Notification

In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, read with the Government of India, Ministry of External Affairs letter no. F.7(11)/62-Goa dated the 25th July 1963, the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu is pleased to make the following rules relating to the recruitment to the non-gazetted posts in the Directorate of Information and Tourism under the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu.

1. Short title.— These rules may be called Goa Government Directorate of Information and Tourism (Non-gazetted posts) Recruitment Rules, 1966.

2. Application.— These rules shall apply to the posts specified in column 1 of the Schedule to these rules.

3. Number, classification and scale of pay.— The number of posts, classification of the said posts and the scales of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 2 to 4 of the said Schedule.

4. Method of recruitment, age limit and other qualifications.— The method of recruitment to the said posts, age limit, qualifications and other matters connected therewith shall be as specified in columns 5 to 13 of the aforesaid Schedule.

Provided that,

(a) the maximum age limit specified in the Schedule in respect of direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other special categories in accordance with the orders issued by the Government from time to time; and

(b) no male candidate, who has more than one wife living and no female candidate, who has married a person having already a wife living, shall be eligible for appointment, unless the Government, after having been satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempts any such candidate from the operation of this rule.

5. These rules will come into effect from the date of the Notification and will relate to appointments to the various posts made on or after this date. An appointment made prior to this date through a duly constituted Staff Selection Board/Departmental Promotion Committee will be deemed to be a regular appointment, notwithstanding any provisions contained in these rules, and the probation period in that case will extend to six months only from the date of this notification.

Legislative Assembly of Goa, Daman and Diu

Legislature Department

LA/1876/1966

The following act passed by the Legislative Assembly of Goa, Daman and Diu received the assent of the President of India on the 20-9-1966, and is hereby published for general information.

The Goa, Daman and Diu Excise Duty (Amendment) Act, 1966

(No. 8 of 1966) [20th September 1966]

An Act to amend the Goa, Daman and Diu Excise Duty Act, 1964.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of Goa, Daman and Diu in the Seventeenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:

1. Short title, extent and commencement. — (1) This Act may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Excise Duty (Amendment) Act, 1966.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette appoint.

2. Amendment of section 22. — In section 22 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Excise Duty Act 1964 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted—

«(3) All rules made under this Act shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall be laid on the table of the Legislative Assembly at its first session immediately after they are made and shall be subject to such modifications as the Assembly may make during the session in which they are so laid and the one immediately following».

3. Insertion of new section 29A.— After section 29 of the principal Act the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

«29 A. Powers of certain officers to close liquor shops.

It shall be lawful for the district magistrate or a sub-divisional magistrate by notice in writing to the holder of a licence or his agent to require that any shop in which liquor is sold shall be closed at such times or for such period as he may think necessary for the preservation of the public peace.

If a riot or unlawful assembly is apprehended or occurs in the vicinity of any such shop, it shall be lawful for any Magistrate or for any Police Officer not below the rank of Inspector who is present, to require such shop to be kept closed for such period as may be necessary:

Provided, however, that when any such order is passed by a Police Officer, he shall, within 24 hours, report the fact to the sub-divisional magistrate or the district magistrate and shall thereafter, abide by such directions as the magistrate may give in this regard".

4. Insertion of new section 36A.— After section 36 of the principal Act the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

«36 A. Cognisance of offences: (1) No Court shall take cognisance of an offence under this Act or under the rules made thereunder other than an offence under section 34 except on complaint made by the Commissioner or any other officer authorised by him either generally or specially in writing.

(2) No Court inferior to that of a Magistrate of the First Class shall try any offence under this Act or the rules made thereunder».

5. Insertion of new section 39A.— After section 39 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

«39A. Power of Commissioner to compound offences: (1) Subject to such conditions, if any, as may be prescribed, the Commissioner may accept from any person alleged to have committed an offence under this Act or under any rules made thereunder other than an offence under section 34, either before or after the commencement of any proceedings against such persons in respect of such offence, by way of composition for such offence, a sum not exceeding two thousand rupees.

(2) When compounding of an offence is accepted the power to confiscate the goods seized under this Act in respect of such offence shall be vested in the Commissioner.

(3) On payment in full of such sum as may be determined by the Commissioner under sub-section (1),—

(a) no proceedings shall be commenced against such person as aforesaid; and

(b) if any proceedings have been already commenced against such person as aforesaid, such proceedings shall not be further proceeded with».

Mormugao Port Trust

Notification

MPT/27-GA(12)/66

As required under Section 124 of the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963, the following Regulations which have been adopted by the Board of Trustees are hereby published.

1. Short title and commencement.— These Regulations may be called the Mormugao Port Employees (Grant of Conveyance Allowance) Regulations, 1966.

They shall come into force with effect from

2. Definitions.— In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (i) «Board», «Chairman» and «Deputy Chairman», shall have the meaning assigned to them in the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963.
- (ii) «Controlling Officer» means the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman, in case of Heads of Departments and Head of the Department in case of other employees.
- (iii) «Conveyance Allowance», «Daily Allowance» and «Mileage Allowance» shall have the same meaning assigned to them in the Supplementary Rules of the Central Government.
- (iv) «Employee» means an employee of the Board.
- (v) «Joining time» means the time allowed to an employee in which to join his post or to travel to or from a station to which he is posted.
- (vi) «Leave» means any kind of leave recognised by the Fundamental Rules or other Rules or orders of the Central Government or by the Mormugao Port Employees (Leave) Regulations, 1964.
- (vii) «Temporary Transfer» means a transfer to duty in another station which is expressed to be for a period not exceeding four months.

3. The following rates and conditions shall govern the grant of conveyance allowance for the employees who are required to travel extensively on duty at or within short distance of their headquarters.

4. The grant of conveyance allowance shall be governed by the following conditions:

- (i) (a) No allowance shall be admissible unless the average monthly running on duty is more than 200 kilometers. Journey between residence and normal place of work shall not be reckoned as running on official work. However, this will not apply to Pilots, who are required to attend to their official duties at all hours of the day and night.
- (b) Journeys performed on bicycle or on foot shall not qualify for the grant of allowance under these regulations.
- (ii) Allowance at the rates prescribed in Column 2 of the table in Reg. 5 of these regulations shall not be admissible to persons whose pay is less than Rs. 450/- per month. This restriction will not apply in the case of Asst. Medical Officers.

(iii) Drawal of allowance at the rates in Column 2 in the table in Reg. 5 is subject to the employee owning and maintaining a motor car in good condition and using it for all official journeys for which the allowance is granted.

(iv) No allowance shall be admissible during:

(a) Joining time, leave and period of temporary transfer. The allowance shall also not be admissible during holidays prefixed to leave and joining time.

(b) Any period of more than 15 days at a time during which an employee in receipt of allowance under Column 2 of the table in Regulation 5 does not maintain a motor car or the motor car maintained by him remains out of order or is not used for official journey for any other reasons.

(v) The officers who are granted conveyance allowance under these orders will not be entitled to any other travelling allowance, i. e. daily or mileage allowance for journeys upto 16 kilometers from the usual place of work at the headquarters. The travelling allowance for journey beyond 16 kilometers will be admissible as under:

(a) if the journey is performed otherwise than in his own conveyance, the travelling allowance, i. e. daily allowance and/or mileage allowance, as admissible under the rules; may be drawn in full;

(b) if he travels by road in his own conveyance either in combination with the rail/steamer/air journey or otherwise, the officer may at his option exchange his conveyance allowance at the rate of 1/30th for each day, for any travelling allowance, i. e. daily allowance and/or mileage allowance admissible to him under the Rules.

5. The rates of allowance prescribed are as under:

Average monthly travel on official duty.	Rates of conveyance allowance for journey
	Own motor car.	Other modes of conveyance.
201 — 300 Kms.	Rs. 60 pm.	Rs. 20 pm.
301 — 450 Kms.	Rs. 90 pm.	Rs. 30 pm.
451 — 600 Kms.	Rs. 120 pm.	Rs. 40 pm.
601 — 800 Kms.	Rs. 150 pm.	Rs. 50 pm.
above 800 Kms.	Rs. 180 pm.	Rs. 50 pm.

6. Any employee claiming the allowance shall maintain a log book of journeys on duty qualifying for the grant of allowance for a minimum period of three months. The log book shall contain the following particulars:

- (a) the distance travelled on official duty.
- (b) places visited, with distance covered and purpose of each visit.
- (c) the mode of conveyance maintained/used.

Note: (1) Only journeys within 16 Kms. of the place of work at the headquarters qualify for the inclusion in the log book, provided the journeys are official and within the local jurisdiction of the employee.

(2) The Controlling Officer shall scrutinise the log book as frequently as possible during the period of three months. A longer period may be prescribed by the Board at its discretion.

7. An allowance under these regulations shall be granted for a period not exceeding two years at a time and its continuance shall be reviewed at the end of each such period. The review should be made in accordance with the procedure laid down for the initial grant of an allowance.

8. In the case of Medical Officers and Assistant Medical Officers, the condition of maintaining log books may be waived by the Board. In such cases the allowance shall be admissible at the lowest rates prescribed in column 2 of the table in Regulation 5. Any claim for allowance at higher rates shall be supported by the maintenance of a log book as prescribed above.

9. In case of Pilots, who are required to attend to their official duties at all hours of the day, for the purpose of maintaining log books required in Regulation 6, the journeys performed from residence to place of work shall be considered official for the purpose of grant of allowance.

10. The allowance granted may be drawn so long as the Controlling Officer is satisfied that there has been no change in the nature of duties of the employee or the extent of his touring, to justify the withdrawal of or a reduction in the rate of the allowance. A certificate to this effect shall be endorsed by the Controlling Officer in the pay bills of the employees concerned for the months of January, April, July and October in each year.

11. Grant of conveyance allowance to the present incumbents of the posts of Harbour Master and Medical Officer is governed by separate orders.

By Order.

Shivakumar Dhindaw, Secretary.
Mormugao, 2nd September, 1966.
